

How to Report a Privacy or Civil Liberties Violation

The Department of War (DoW) is committed to the protection of the privacy and civil liberties of DoW employees, members of the military, and the public, to the greatest extent possible, consistent with its operational requirements. The Oversight and Compliance (O&C) Privacy and Civil Liberties Division (PCLD) facilitate the resolution of complaints alleging violation(s) of the privacy rights or civil liberties of an individual by the U.S. Department of War (DoD), in accordance with DoD Instruction 5400.11, "DoD Privacy and Civil Liberties Programs." The O&C is charged with implementing DoW's Privacy and Civil Liberties programs through advice, monitoring, official reporting, and training.

Privacy rights and civil liberties are personal, and fundamental rights and freedoms protected by the Constitution of the United States. Most civil liberties (including freedom of speech, assembly, press and religion) are concentrated primarily in the Bill of Rights. Click here for additional information about civil liberties.

The information contained on this page provides instructions on how to file a complaint if you believe the DoW is violating your privacy rights and/or civil liberties.

You may file a complaint with:

- Your Component Privacy and/or Civil Liberties Officer.
- The Oversight and Compliance (O&C) Privacy and Civil Liberties Division (PCLD).

Filing a Complaint with the O&C PCLD:

Complaints may be received via email or postal mail.

To file a complaint via email, submit your complaint to osd.ncr.odam.mbx.civil-liberties-correspondence@mail.mil.

Please refrain from sending personally identifiable information as these mailboxes do not allow for your encrypted submission. However, in an abundance of caution, you may use the DoD SAFE (Secure Access File Exchange) via <https://safe.apps.mil/> to upload and send your personal information. Please refer to the above mailbox addresses for your submission. When using SAFE, we request that any personal information being transmitted must be encrypted prior to uploading and the decryption key must then be provided to the recipient(s) by a means other than SAFE.

To file a complaint via postal mail, mail your complaint to the below address:

*Oversight and Compliance Directorate
Privacy and Civil Liberties Division
4800 Mark Center Drive, Mailbox #24
Alexandria, VA 22350-1700*

Please make sure your complaint includes the following:

- Name
- Address (please indicate if this is a home or work address)
- Contact number(s)
- Preferred method of contact (via email or postal mail)
- Contact information of any other person(s) representing the complainant. For example, a lawyer or legal representative.
- Information about the person, program, policy, or procedure your complaint is referring to
- Explain the circumstances surrounding the violation of your privacy and/or civil liberty rights and include:
 - ✓ Date(s) and location of the alleged violation. Please state if the violation is ongoing.
 - ✓ Component(s) and individuals involved in the alleged violation
 - ✓ The type of violation and a summary of the events subject of your complaint
 - ✓ Whether the violation was reported to any other DoW entity or authorities and what action, if any, was taken
- Any other relevant information you believe necessary
- Your Signature and the Date

Before You Submit Your Complaint Letter:

- Maintain a copy of your submitted complaint letter for your files
- Make certain that your signed complaint letter is concise and legible
- Be prepared to answer additional questions from O&C and/or DoW component offices related to your complaint letter
- Recognize that O&C may be unable to refer certain complaint letters to DoW component offices for investigation. This includes:
 - Anonymous complaints
 - Duplicate complaints concerning the same complainant and civil liberties or privacy issue, and
 - Complaints under investigation or complaints that received a final action or decision by the appropriate DoW component office
- Understand that investigations are conducted by the appropriate DoW component office(s)

What Happens After You Submit Your Complaint Letter?

- You will receive confirmation of receipt of your complaint
- You will receive notification of action(s) taken regarding your complaint
- You will receive a response letter directly from appropriate DoW component office(s) after a thorough investigation and determination has been made
